PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, on October 27, 1858, a son was born to Holland-Dutch parents in the "Empire State", who was destined to be placed among the immortals of America on South Dakota's Shrine of Democracy; and

WHEREAS, Theodore Roosevelt was accepted by the Mount Rushmore committee as an outstanding representative of the current generation; and

WHEREAS, the career of Theodore Roosevelt exemplifies the rugged courage, individualism and devotion to American ideals which characterizes the typical American;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 27, 1858, as in South Dakota, and call upon all South Dakotans to pay homage to this great American.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 18th day of October, 1962.
